Guiding principles

Principle: The environment, ecosystems, and biodiversity are respected now and in the long term.

Agree

Why?

There is a move to look after these systems but it needs to be extremely well regulated to preserve the integrity of the land and rivers.

Principle: Māori cultural interests are understood and respected.

Agree

Why?

There is a definite endeavour to be culturally sensitive.

Principle: Support the transition to a carbon neutral economy by 2050.

Strongly agree

Why?

To preserve the future so that our grandchildren can live in a safe and clean environment.

Principle: The impact on people, communities and regions are managed in a just and inclusive way.

Agree

Why?

There is usually an attempt to ascertain the impact on a community prior to the development.

Principle: Support a circular economy by meeting resource needs through resource efficiency, recycling and reuse.

Agree

Why?

There is an endeavour to achieve this aim.

Principle: Actions taken within the mineral and petroleum sector should align with the strategic direction of other related sectors and Government strategies.

Strongly agree

Why?

There needs to be a complementary process.

Do you agree or disagree with each of the following principles for the Crown?

Principle: The Crown honours its duty towards Māori as a Treaty partner, adheres to the Principles of the Treaty of Waitangi and its duty to meet settlement commitments.

Agree

Why?

It appears to do so.

Principle: The Crown receives a fair financial return for its minerals and petroleum.

Agree

Why?

It appears to do so.

Principle: The Crown regulates in a way that is fair, transparent, reasonable and proportionate.

Neither agree nor disagree

Why?

It attempts to.

Principle: The Crown honours the rights of current permit holders to continue production or exploration activities under existing permits.

Agree

Why?

It appears to do so.

Principle: The Crown makes policy decisions based on the best evidence, and accounting for the foreseeable need for minerals and petroleum, both now and for future generations.

Agree

Why?

It appears to do so.

Principle: The Crown proactively engages and consults with relevant stakeholders and decisions are communicated in a clear and transparent way.

Neither agree nor disagree

Why?

It appears to do so however there are many who don't believe this to be the case.

Do you agree or disagree with each of the following principles for Industry?

Principle: Pursue continuous improvements in health and safety.

Strongly agree

Why?

Principle: Strive to implement industry best practice in operations.

Strongly agree

Why?
