AN OPPORTUNITY TO HOST THE NEW ZEALAND SCIENCE MEDIA CENTRE

The Ministry of Business, Innovation & Employment (MBIE) invites proposals from New Zealand organisations to host the New Zealand Science Media Centre.

New Zealand's Science Media Centre is a unique part of the research, science and innovation (RSI) and media system in New Zealand. A recent evaluation has demonstrated that the existing programme has proven to be effective, trusted, and globally connected.

MBIE is responsible for implementing the Government's "A Nation of Curious Minds – A National Strategic Plan for Science in Society" (the Plan). Supporting initiatives are funded from Vote Business, Science and Innovation: Science in Society Appropriation, including a Science Media Centre. The New Zealand Science Media Centre will contribute to the outcomes set out in the Plan, by facilitating and strengthening links between the media and the science community.

The New Zealand Science Media Centre must be editorially and operationally independent, responsible for its own strategic direction, operational matters, and its communications and branding activities. The New Zealand Science Media Centre must be a signatory to the network's Science Media Centre Charter and uphold the Charter's principles.

We are now seeking applications from New Zealand organisations to host the New Zealand Science Media Centre and to continue the delivery of this Work Programme for the next five years.

The New Zealand Science Media Centre:

- > fulfils a crucial need to provide accurate, evidence based information to the media. It does this through offering a trusted and independent link between scientists and researchers to journalists
- > facilitates a wider visibility of Mātauranga Māori and Kaupapa Māori research
- > ensures our research and media voices reflect our diverse population.

This Call for Proposals provides you with information on:

- > what the opportunity is
- > how to apply for the funding
- > how your application will be assessed
- > what happens if your application is successful
- > how to contact us for assistance with the application process.

We are making this Call for Proposals to evaluate:

- > the provision of services a Host may have to offer
- > what opportunities exist for innovation in delivery models and hosting arrangements
- > that the Host's overheads and services are of value and cost effective (cost is not the primary criteria against which proposals will be assessed).

THE OBJECTIVES OF THE NEW ZEALAND SCIENCE MEDIA CENTRE

The Objectives of the New Zealand Science Media Centre are to:

- > Work with the media to enhance the quality, depth and breadth of coverage of research related topics, particularly coverage of New Zealand RSI.
- > Ensure research, including Mātauranga Māori and Kaupapa Māori research, is able to be accessed by the media through meaningful and usable avenues.
- > Enable scientists, researchers and research organisations to work effectively with media by providing resources and training.
- > Encourage responsible and evidence-based science news reporting from journalists by providing resources and training.
- > Maintain networks and manage relationships between the key components of the science system, including Māori researchers and Māori research organisations, and Māori media.

HOST REQUIREMENTS

We require the Host to:

- > Enable the delivery of the New Zealand Science Media Centre Work Programme (the Work Programme).
- > Give effect to The Treaty of Waitangi/Te Tiriti o Waitangi (Te Tiriti) through the Work Programme and activities.
- > Have priorities and strategies aligned with the objectives of the New Zealand Science Media Centre and to have respect for and uphold public media values and ethics.
- > Recognise the value the current Science Media Centre offers and commit to sustaining the Work Programme into the future, with the opportunity for enhancement.
- > Have the ability to maintain a trusted Work Programme, recognising that a New Zealand Science Media Centre is dependent on voluntary contributions from scientists and researchers (the requirement for the Host to maintain trust and credibility is critical to be able to draw on independent scientists and researchers input).
- > Have the ability to offer business continuity and provide services in a cost effective and reliable manner.
- > Continue with the structure of independent advisors which comprise scientists, researchers and media representatives.
- > Recognise that the role of the Host is not a commercial business opportunity, but is a prestigious contribution to the research and media systems in New Zealand.

THE NEW ZEALAND SCIENCE MEDIA CENTRE EXPECTED IMPACTS

The New Zealand Science Media Centre is expected to have the following impacts:

- > Increased public awareness about the role RSI can play in society.
- > An informed public when new RSI issues emerge.
- > Improved public access to New Zealand RSI content.
- > Increased public visibility of Mātauranga Māori and Kaupapa Māori research.
- > Improved information access to diverse communities with inequitable access to RSI reporting.
- > Informed public debate on RSI issues.
- > Enhanced connections between media and Kaupapa Māori researchers in RSI.

NEW ZEALAND SCIENCE MEDIA CENTRE HOST FUNDING EXPECTATIONS

The New Zealand Science Media Centre Host is expected to:

- > Provide an environment that enables the success of the New Zealand Science Media Centre.
- > Provide effective and efficient delivery of overhead services.

MBIE welcomes innovation in the delivery model and hosting arrangements. Critically, we expect respondents to maintain the same or similar capacity, capability, and expertise as offered by the existing Science Media Centre staff. MBIE will supply all available intellectual property of the existing Science Media Centre to the successful applicant.

WHAT FUNDING IS AVAILABLE?

MBIE has not prescribed a funding amount or a funding range for this investment.

Applicants need to tell us how much it would cost to host the New Zealand Science Media Centre and deliver the New Zealand Science Media Centre Work Programme they propose to offer. Applicants should note that MBIE currently provides annual funding of approximately $1 million (excluding GST) to the current Host to deliver the New Zealand Science Media Centre Work Programme.

Funding is available for five years. MBIE reserves the right to make a variation to the funding allocated from that proposed.

Payments will be made in equal quarterly amounts over the term of the Funding Agreement. The total amount paid annually will be the same for each of the five years.
