

Hi

I am in full support of Mandatory unit pricing. I refer to it often in supermarkets where it is used and find it a helpful and easily calculated way of establishing the real pricing of products. I find it frustrating where it is not used on products that should be easily able to be calculated that way. I believe it should be used in all supermarkets as a permanent and mandatory requirement.

Rochelle Miskelly