Q42

Strongly disagree

To what extent do you agree with Option 1: no exclusions from regulatory requirements?

Q43

If you would like to say something more about your answer to Question 42, please do so here:

This option rules out the average New Zealander in favour of wealthy people who can afford large expensive options that can house fixed plumbed toilets

Q44

Strongly agree

To what extent do you agree with Option 2: excluding smaller freedom-camping vehicles from the requirement to have a fixed toilet?

Q45

If you would like to say something more about your answer to Question 44, please do so here:

As long as the toilet can be used while the bed is made up - this gets rid of vehicles not suitable to be called self contained . Both vehicles where using fixed or portable toilets under this scenario can use a toilet day or night rather than polute our environment

Strongly disagree

Page 16: General comments

Q62

Are there any other comments you would like to make about the proposed freedom camping regulations?

The intent of the changes should be to eliminate vehicles that are unsuited to be used as camper vans - if you cannot use a toilet when the bed is made up in your camper then you need to go outside - this is where our issues begin. But to go fixed and fully plumbed is too extreme and means most New Zealanders could not afford this.
