Principles for drafting the Code

Share your views
A.	What comments do you have regarding the overarching theme of “good advice outcomes” and the underlying principles? It is going to be difficult to define reasonable and there is massive underinsurance in NZ and I find in most cases clients balance needs with cost.
B.	Are there any further principles that should be included, or existing principles that should be removed?

Ethical behaviour

Act with honesty, fairness and integrity

Share your views
C.	Do you agree with a requirement to act with honesty, fairness and integrity? If not, please set out your reasoning. I agree

Keep the commitments you make to your client

D.	Should minimum standards for ethical behaviour for the provision of financial advice extend beyond strict legal obligations, to include meeting less formal understandings, impressions or expectations that do not necessarily amount to strictly legal obligations? If no, please give reasoning. If yes, please propose how a standard for such commitments might be framed. When I was practising law we wrote an ethics paper and did an oral exam but this seems excessive in this context My suggestion would be to have a certificate to operate as an RFA which would be renewed annually if the adviser maintained his standards and had no complaints against them
E.	If there was a minimum standard requiring Financial Advice Providers – or Financial Advice Providers in some situations – to have their own code of ethics in addition to the Code, how would you frame the requirement for it to deal with keeping commitments? An annual certificate to practise as part of FSP process

Manage and fully disclose conflicts of interest

F.	Should the Code include a minimum standard on conflicts of interest in addition to the legislation?

Do no harm to the client or the profession

G.	Do you agree that a person who gives financial advice must not do anything or make an omission that would or would be likely to bring the financial advice profession into disrepute? If not, please set out your reasoning.
H.	Is an additional minimum standard on doing no harm to the client necessary? If so, what standard do you propose?

Keep your client's data confidential

I.	In which situations, if any, should the retention, use or sharing of anonymised bulk customer data be subject to Code standards?
J.	Do you agree that the Code should cover the various aspects of maintaining client confidentiality discussed in this paper?
K.	Are there other aspects of maintaining client confidentiality to consider?

Ethical processes in Financial Advice Provider entities

L.	Do you agree that the Code should require the Financial Advice Provider to document and maintain its "ethical processes"?
M.	Should the Financial Advice Provider be required to have a publicly available corporate code of ethics? Are there particular situations where a corporate code of ethics should be or should not be required?
N.	Should Financial Advice Providers also be subject to additional standards in respect of leadership and culture? If so, how should these be framed?
O.	Do you propose other additional standards of ethical behaviour that should apply to Financial Advice Providers?

Ethics training

P.	Do you agree that Financial Advice Providers should be required to meet standards relating to ethics training? If not, please state your reasoning.
Q.	Should ethics training requirements apply to all officers and employees of a Financial Advice Provider, as appropriate to their role and contribution to the process of financial advice provision? If not, please state your reasoning.

R.	Should there be a requirement for ongoing refresher training on ethics?

Resolving ethical dilemmas

S.	Do you agree that Financial Advice Providers should be required to have in place, and use, a framework for resolving ethical dilemmas that may arise in giving financial advice? If not, please set out your reasoning.
----	---

Compliance functions

T.	Should there be a requirement for explicit sign-off on the soundness of financial advice provided directly by a Financial Advice Provider?
U.	Do you agree that Financial Advice Providers should be required to have in place a compliance function aimed at following up on concerns raised by employees and other stakeholders? If not, please set out your reasoning.
V.	Should this extend further into an internal audit obligation, having in place processes to systematically test for and detect violations of ethical behaviour?
W.	Are there any potential compliance costs for small and/or large Financial Advice Providers that need to be considered?

Responsibility for the whole advice process

X.	Do you agree that Financial Advice Providers should be required to be able to demonstrate that they meet the standards of ethical behaviour as if the Financial Advice Provider carried out the whole advice process directly itself? If not, please set out your reasoning.

Reinforcing good ethical behaviour

Y.	What principle or mechanism do you propose the Code could include to reinforce good ethical behaviour on a day-to-day basis?
----	--

Conduct and client care

Advice situations

Share your views
Z.	Are there other delivery methods that should be considered when testing our thinking?

Advice-giving standards

AA.	How do the current client care standards work in practice, especially in advice-giving situations not previously covered by the AFA Code? In answering this question, please ignore “scope of advice” (CS-8) and “suitability” (CS-9 and part of CS-10).
BB.	Could any aspect of the current client care standards be worded better? (For example, we are aware that the definition of “complaint” could be improved.)
CC.	Are there any aspects of the current client care standards that could be expanded or clarified (for example, in light of the published findings of the Disciplinary Committee)?
DD.	Are there any potential compliance costs for small and/or large Financial Advice Providers that need to be considered?
EE.	Are there any additional matters that should be addressed in the advice-giving standards? Those listed above? Others?

Advice process

FF.	Do you think there are any other components that should be included in the design considerations of an advice process?
GG.	Should the Code include guidance material to help determine what needs to be considered when designing an advice process?
HH.	Are there any other important aspects you think should be included in the advice process for all types of financial advice activities under the new regime?
II.	Should any of the key aspects that we have listed above be removed? If so, why?
JJ.	Are there any situations in which an advice process need not be followed?

Personalised suitability

KK.	What comments do you have about a proposed minimum standard on personalised suitability analysis? What are your views on the example above?

Organisational standards

LL.	What are the practical advantages and disadvantages of including organisational standards as described? What explanatory material or examples could we provide in the Code that might help to make these standards easier to comply with in practice?
MM.	Would implementing these organisational conduct and client care standards create a particular compliance burden for your firm? If yes, please explain why.

General competence, knowledge and skills

Share your views
NN.	Do you agree with our interpretation of the meaning of “competence, knowledge, and skills”? If not, why not?
OO.	Are there other factors, which contribute to combined expertise, that we have not listed? We are particularly interested in factors that are relevant to financial advice that is given by a Financial Advice Provider directly, including by digital means. I am a RFA but have 2 law degrees from SA and have practised for more than 10 years as an attorney, none of which would count towards my general competence knowledge and skills as proposed. However, I am competent to service my clients moreover due to my duty of care, integrity and ethical behaviour than the need to have a further degree
PP.	What do you think are the advantages of this approach to general competence, knowledge and skills?
QQ.	What do you think are the disadvantages of this approach to general competence, knowledge and skills?
RR.	In what ways do you think this proposed standard contributes to, or detracts from, the legislative purposes (for example ensuring the quality and availability of advice, avoiding unnecessary compliance costs, and promoting innovation and flexibility)?
SS.	What factors should we consider in determining whether to make the proposed unit standard a renewing obligation?

Particular competence, knowledge and skills

Share your views
TT.	What are the advantages and disadvantages of our approach of identifying two types of financial advice? What impact would it have on the type of advice you give and on your compliance costs?

UU.	How should RFA's experience be recognised? I think it is essential to recognise the experience and skill of RFA's as a qualification does not mean an adviser will always have a duty of care towards their clients and act with integrity.
VV.	What do you think are the advantages of this approach to particular competence, knowledge, and skill?
WW.	What do you think are the disadvantages of this approach to particular competence, knowledge, and skill? I think that if the experience of RFA's is not recognised then many will exit the industry which will only worsen the underinsurance problem
XX.	In what ways do you think this proposed standard contributes to, or detracts from, the legislative purposes (for example ensuring the quality and availability of advice, avoiding unnecessary compliance costs, and promoting innovation and flexibility)?
YY.	What alterations, if any, would you suggest to the baselines we have nominated: specialist strand for product capability, Level 5 for discipline capability, and relevant degree (or other degree plus Level 6) for planning capability?

Other comments

ZZ.	Are there any other comments you would like to make to assist us in developing the Code? I am a competent, knowledgeable and skilful RFA who has many clients all of who would recommend me due to my duty of care, competence and advice given to them. I am also 57 years old and if I was to be forced to do a further degree I would leave the industry
